

Alexandra gained a BA at Saint Martin's School of Art and an MA at the London College of Printing. She is an official guide and lecturer at Tate Modern, Tate Britain and Guildhall Art Gallery. She is also a Pallant House Gallery Lecturer and an Art History tutor at the City Lit Institute. She is a qualified guide to the City of London and a member of the City of London Guide Lecturers Association, offering walks and lectures on many aspects of the arts for societies, corporations and private individuals. She is co-author of the book Lord Mayor's Portraits 1983-2014 (2015). Alexandra's background is in design, having practised as a graphic designer, running her own design consultancy for many years.