

The Arts Society Ashford

Dear Arts Society Member,

Your committee and I are delighted to inform you that the planned first lecture of the new season will go ahead, using "Zoom" technology. We understand that many of you have become competent "Zoom" users during lockdown. The lecture will take place at the normal time and date, ie at 11.00am on Tuesday 15th September. This will be a real live lecture, with slides, from Imogen Corrigan on the subject, "The Hazards of the Journey: Pilgrimage and Travel in the Middle Ages." There will also be an opportunity to ask questions at the end.

A week or so before the meeting we shall send an email explaining how to join the meeting. You can decide at any time whether to join us - there is no requirement to sign up in advance. However, once the lecture has started we will not be able to admit late-comers, though you can leave at any time.

We still have a shortfall in subscription renewals. We are hoping to run further lectures by "Zoom" until such time as we can safely return to Aldington Village Hall, so I hope that any of you who were holding back will now feel willing to continue to support the Society. I can assure you that any "profit" we make this year will be ploughed back into the Society. If you have not paid because you wish to leave the Society, please let us know so that we can invite those on the waiting list to join us.

Obviously, our lectures are only available to paid-up members.

Stay well, and we hope to see many of you on 15th September.

Best Wishes

Paul White
