

Alexandra is an official guide and lecturer at Tate Modern, Tate Britain and the Guildhall Art Gallery. She is also a gallery lecturer at Pallant House. She is a qualified guide to the City of London, offering lectures and walks, covering many aspects of the arts for societies, corporations and private individuals, and is a member of the City of London Guide Lecturers Association. She is co-author of the book Lord Mayor's Portraits 1983-2014 (2015). Alexandra's background is in design, having practised as a graphic designer, running her own design consultancy for many years. She gained a BA at Saint Martin's School of Art and an MA at the London College of Printing.